The permission owner must provide a name and name. The permissions number at the request of the Shellfish constable or other law enforcement officer. 4. The resolution should be in a prominent place ... and ... to be available for an extraneous place so that law enforcement officers can look at it and make sure that you have received permission. " What do you say to it? I will say that this is not the best solution. It seems to me that this is contrary to common sense. I do not want outsiders to look at my documents. I do not want anyone even touched my documents. I want to be sure that no one will use them.
