The plot revolves around Vasu, a loan shark who saves the life of the police officer Shivaraman and his wife, who were attacked by the gangster Taandawam's men. It's annoying. The film, as it were, tells various everyday stories associated with bandits, but not only. He seems to be trying to show the life of ordinary people, life in the slums, to show the difficulties that are associated with bandits, but not only. He seems to be trying to show the life of ordinary people, life in the slums, to show the difficulties that these people are forced to do something in order to survive. In this regard, the film can be called social, but just like in other films of this genre, questions of life and death, questions of listice and so on are raised in this film. dd2bc28256
